DOWN AND OUT.

The Queen Accepts the Resignation of the Gladstone Ministry.

The Marquis of Salisbury Summoned by the Queen to Form a New Cabinet—A Splendid Ovation to the Premier—The Conservatives Anxious to Have Gladstone Remain in Office—Burning of the India Museum—Foreign News.

Special Telegrams to the Post-Dispatch. London, June 12.—The political situation remains unchanged, except the fact that the Marquis of Salisbury having been summoned to the Queen to form a new cabinet. A splendid ovation to the premier—the conservatives anxious to have Gladstone remain in office—burning of the India Museum—foreign news.

STARTED FOR BALMORAL. 8. M.—It has just been learned from an authoritative source that the report to the effect that the Marquis of Salisbury had been summoned to the Queen to form a new cabinet is true. The Marquis started secretly, at midnight, for Balmoral.

THE SERVICES AND RITES. THE INVESTORS' EXHIBITION BURNT.

London, June 12.—The immense building occupied by the International Investors' Exhibition is on fire and burning furiously. It is feared that most of the investments on exhibition will be totally destroyed.

BURNING OF THE INDIA MUSEUM.

A fire broke out this afternoon in the India Museum, the building which is being held for the International Exhibition of Art. This department is situated just north of the main entrance to the exhibition, and between the eastern wall of the exhibition building and the exhibition road. The museum was filled with evidence of the handicraft of India, carved wood-work mainly, and other like inflammable material. The flames spread with alarming rapidity, and the immovable structure was regarded as doomed to destruction. The visitors to the exhibition and the spectators at the head of the first flight of fire fled the building, and all quickly reached the alarm and soon fully fifty engines were sending heavy streams of water into the burning museum and upon the adjacent property.

THE TORIES AND PARLIAMENT. Now that it has become apparent by the departure of the Marquis of Salisbury for Balmoral that the Tories will assume the reins of Government, the members of Parliament have been conferring with leaders of the opposition with regard to the formation of a ministry. Mr. Parnell and his followers strongly urge the Tories to adopt the Home Rule measure for Ireland, stating that the advocacy of such a step by the Conservatives would completely dish the Liberals.

THE RESIGNATION ACCEPTED. The Queen has accepted the resignation of the Gladstone Ministry and has summoned the Earl of Balmoral for a new cabinet.

GLADSTONE ANNOUNCES HIS RESIGNATION. Mr. Gladstone announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that he had informed the Queen that she had accepted his resignation, and that Her Majesty had informed him that she had summoned the Marquis of Salisbury, the leader of the opposition in the House of Lords, to Balmoral for the purpose of entrusting with him the formation of a new ministry.

WANT GLADSTONE TO STAY IN. It was reported to-day in certain circles that the Conservative leaders, had decided to make their efforts be made to induce Mr. Gladstone to reconsider his resolve to resign, and should those efforts fail, to suggest that Sir Stafford Northcote be called upon to form a cabinet.

THE QUEEN'S COMMUNICATOR. The Marquis of Salisbury arrived at Balmoral at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Gladstone received a communication from the Queen. In this communication the Queen acknowledged the receipt of the resignation of the Prime Minister and Cabinet. Her Majesty also states that, pending the consideration of the resignation of the Gladstone Ministry, she had summoned to Balmoral the Marquis of Salisbury.

LODGE GRANVILLE'S ANNOUNCEMENT. In the House of Lords this afternoon Lord Granville announced that Mr. Gladstone had tendered to the Queen his resignation and his entire Cabinet. Lord Granville said that the Queen had accepted the resignation and had been summoned to her presence the Marquis of Salisbury, who is now at Balmoral in conference with Her Majesty. Therefore, Lord Granville said, he hoped the House would abandon all ordinary business.

POPULAR OATHS TO BALMORAL. Telegrams from all the principal points along the route show that the Marquis of Salisbury is at Balmoral, and that the Queen made a tour through all the principal cities in the vicinity of the Newfound coast while the Marquis was engaged in the work of getting the bill passed.

LEAPED INTO THE RIVER.
By C. Stewart's Stock Trader, Committee
Suicide This Morning.

C. Stewart, a stock trader, resides at the Union Stock Yards, committed suicide this morning by jumping into the river from the ferry boat, "Pride of Chicago," while the boat was in mid-stream, near the Union Stock Yards. Mr. Stewart was an old resident of North St. Louis and well-known in this portion of the city. For years past he had been greatly troubled with his physicians had given up hopes of ever getting him to recover. For the last two years he had not been able to make a living, and had followed his avocation of stock trader, doing business mostly with the firm of H. Payne & Co. of the Union Stock Yards. He had threatened to take his life before he left home, early this morning, he killed his wife and son, and then, after an immediate struggle, he leaped into the water and was never more. As he jumped he exclaimed: "Tell Stewart that I am going to the river." The boat was bound for the pier of the Union Stock Yards, and was immediately stopped by the police. The boat landed at the pier of the Union Stock Yards, and the massacre of the five who were left in charge. The correspondent left immediately for Long's ranch to get assistance. This morning he started with a party of six, including Capt. A. E. Head, for the scene of the massacre, and arrived there at noon. The commands of Captain Lawson, Wood and Hattfield arrived at the same time having trailed the Indians all the previous day and night from Gayville Canyon. The camp presents a scene of the utmost destruction. The supply wagons were all burned, as well as the clothing and the other material is scattered. Indians got away with the Government's arms, but no ammunition, as it was exploded during the fire. The bodies of the murdered soldiers were found to have been mutilated, but the charred remains of one man was found among the debris and burned wagons. One body is yet missing. It is impossible to wagons. The following are the names of the killed: Sergeant Peter Munich of Company G; Sadie Henry Nichols of Company D; Mark B. H. B. of Company C; and Corporal John S. Schubert, a carpenter. Sergeant Munich, a quarter of a mile up a steep hill, but it was useless, for the Sergeant received his third and death wound in the arms of his companion. The Indians headed for the Sierra Madres via June Bonito. As the commands are out of provisions they are compelled to await the arrival of fresh supplies, which are expected to come this afternoon. Captain Wood takes up the Indian trail this evening, and will follow it to the nearest town. The Indians are now in the mountains. Captain Lawson and Captain Hattfield will operate with him. It is impossible for the troops to do much on account of the lack of transportation.

THE EARLY BIRD.

Secretary Johnston Would Like to See the Exposition Catch the Amusement Worm.

"It is about time that we were making dates for our new Music Hall," said Secretary Johnston to day, "and I regret exceedingly that nothing is settled on yet. It becomes obliging to get them books out of these halls as soon as possible."

Johnston, a man of 50, is a good-looking man, and a good singer. He is a member of the George Dismas Society, and a reporter of the "Daily Journal."

"How much will you need?"

"I will need $10,000."

"I will give you $10,000."

duction of the report or of any other business, and an acrimonious discussion ensued among the Republicans, who split in the matter of the bill. The objectors were persistent in their refusal to allow the report to go in, and the members pretty much gave up the effort, and enjoyed the newspapers and the reading of private correspondence.

RETRY PAY FOR JURORS.—The contest was allowed to prevent legislation until noon, when the House took a recess until this evening. The bill was introduced by unanimous consent. A House bill increasing the compensation of Grand and Petit Juries was passed with but one dissenting vote.

THE Statue of Liberty is daily expected in New York. It comes not wholly unprovided for.

As a novelty the Republican is printing the portraits of the Colonels as aspirants for office. They are novelties.

The initials of Police Commissioners Goings might easily be understood to stand for "Offensive Partisan."

The Republicans continue to argue in favor of low assessments of railroad property and high assessments on the property of private citizens.

We are still waiting to inscribe on the roll of fame the name of the wealthy citizen of St. Louis who will be one of the hundred who are now subscribing $250 apiece to the Bartholdi Post-Fund.

One reason why the Ohio Republican platform seems so thin, is because it tries to stretch itself over the whole field of National Politics. You cannot get the Republicans of Ohio together and make them believe that they are not holding a National Convention.

The law providing for the branch penitentiary leaves the confirmation of the purchase of the site with the Governor. There is a report that the Cape Girardeau selection was engrossed by Major RAINWATER, and if this is the case, Governor MARMADUKE may not approve of the site by a — well, by a long sight.

The cause of cremation is greatly helped by the increasing dread of contagious disease, and by the growing conviction that, by burying in the ground the bodies of those who have died from contagious diseases, we are helping to perpetuate the disease. It is likely that the present generation will witness the triumph of cremation over earth-burial.

The Queen has summoned SALISBURY to form a Conservative Ministry. To take office on the eve of the general election, when the Liberals are eager to be relieved, that they may well and compose their own disagreements, may be a wise thing for the equally inharmonious Conservatives to do; but at this distance it looks like a bit of very desperate "forlorn hope" business.

An alleged special from Cape Girardeau to the Republicans says that there is great indignation down there over the insinuation that the State paid just a little bit more for the Penitentiary site than it is worth, and adds that $150 and $200 per acre is no uncommon price for land in and adjoining the city. We refer the whole matter to the County Assessor and to the State Board of Equalization.

An accident of an unusually distressing character is reported from Chicago, where several choristers girls were injured by the falling of the rickety stage on which they were performing. The injuries were slight, but the advanced age of the sufferers renders any injury dangerous. It is understood that the grandson of one of the ladies, who is a prominent lawyer of Chicago, will prosecute the manager for damages, and establish the legal rights of the Chicago choristers.

An improvement in train operating, which will make railroad travel safer if it has the merits claimed for it, is an invention for telegraphing to moving trains. This is done by using the induction current of a wire laid between the rails and only six inches below and parallel to a similarly insulated wire running beneath the baggage car, which is used for telegraphing. By this means the train is in constant telegraphic communication, not only with the train dispatcher, but, if need be, with the entire telegraphic service of the world. The invention is already in use on a branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and is said to work perfectly.

The Kansas City Times is laboring under a grave misapprehension when it fails to see that the location of the branch Penitentiary at Cape Girardeau is better for the State and better for Kansas City than its location at Kansas City would have been. Instead of being "an out-of-the-way place," at the mercy of a single railroad, and with no market for manufacture, it is described by the Times, Cape Girardeau is less dependent on railroads than either Jefferson City or Kansas City, and has better and cheaper communication than either of those places has with markets for manufacture. It is on the Mississippi, not far from the point which Illinois, has found to be her best Penitentiary site. As Kansas City supplies the State with so large a proportion of its convict labor, there would have been some saving in criminal costs if Kansas City had been chosen, but other and far more weighty considerations incline the authorities to favor Cape Girardeau.

A PUBLIC WRONG.

The newspaper interest owes too much to the railroads in this country to advocate the imposition of any restrictions or burdens that can impair their usefulness, and the Post-Dispatch has been and will continue to be among the foremost to demand for them the equal protection of the laws. We should rejoice to see every mile of railroad property in the United States fairly remunerative to its owners, and to see every railroad corporation as sure of even-handed justice and unbiased verdicts from the juries of the country as the most inoffensive citizen.

But when these incorporated aggregations of capital and political influence are accorded business privileges unjust to the general public, or are permitted to trample upon public policy and abuse their franchises with impunity, or are permitted by either legislative or executive favor to escape a fair share of the burdens of the government by which they are protected, it is time to protest in the name of Democracy and in the name of public justice. They have been studying the ancient records may that these contradict the Secretary's claim. The story as told by them is that the BAYARD who voted for Delaware in that contest strove to defeat JEFFERSON and to elect BURR through thirty-five ballots on any one of which his vote would have elected JEFFERSON. On the thirty-sixth ballot, when JEFFERSON was elected, the vote of Delaware was cast blank, and JEFFERSON's election was due to his gaining the votes of Vermont and Maryland, which would have sufficed to elect him if Mr. BAYARD had again cast the Delaware vote against him. It seems to be true that the influence of HAMILTON gave JEFFERSON the direct or indirect aid of six or seven members belonging to BURR's party, but the one indecisive blank vote which the ancestral BAYARD cast on the last ballot is offset by extracts from his letters, in which he declared that he "considered Mr. BURR personally better qualified to fill the office of President than Mr. JEFFERSON." The story of Mr. BURR's election after the election, Mr. BAYARD ascribed BURR's defeat to BURR's own integrity, rather than to HAMILTON's influence or the Delaware vote. "The means of electing BURR existed," he wrote, "but this required his co-operation. By deceiving one man (a great blockhead) and tempting two (not incorruptible), he might have secured a majority of the States." Jeffersonian affinities do not seem to be hereditary in the BAYARD family in the same sense that the boss-ship of Delaware is.

Not in vain has Senator COCKRELL represented Missouri in the Senate. Aside from the sugar-beet, sorghum, cabbage and turnip seed he has distributed, the country is indebted to him for the public service which the following members of his patriotic family are now rendering:

Brother-in-law HENRY EWING, Clerk of State Supreme Court.

Brother-in-law CHARLES EWING, Surgeon, U. S. A.

Brother-in-law EPHRAIM B. EWING, Consul-General to Mexico.

Brother-in-law JOHN R. WALKER, Kansas City Court of Appeals.

Brother-in-law J. M. STAPP, Postmaster at Missouri City.

Dr. FULKERSON, Postmaster at Lexington, Mo.

This is a pretty good list for a stern opponent of nepotism. And yet it does not include the young son who is to be worked into Congress from Kansas City, nor Mr. ASHLEY EWING, Capitol Commissioner at Jefferson City, nor Mr. H. CLAY EWING, who is spoken of as the successor of U. S. District Judge

THE PEDESTAL.

The Wonderful Success of Mr. Joe Pallister's Popular Fund.

Saying that Joseph Pallister had more than $60,000 to build the pedestal of the Statue of Freedom, I recall a little incident analogous to his interest in this piece of sculpture.

APRENTICE ART.

About ten years ago Mr. Fullizer, who was then without a newspaper, and spending some time in New York, asked me to drive him to Central Park; and when we came to the restaurant at Mount St. Vincent, where we got out, I asked him if he had ever seen a pedestal of a statue in the shape of a chair. He said no, and I told him that I had seen a pedestal, and had a chair in the rear of it, which turned out to be an unbesieged chapel, for the purpose of sculpture, because a few years after the I refer to it, it caught fire and burnt down, with all the treasures it contained, which, I fear, were irreparable. When we entered the door of this retired chapel there burst upon us the splendid collection of Crawford's casts, and the grand collection of statues around the chapel of the restaurant. —
